

Class 3 Ancient Egyptian Projects

We produced some fantastic projects this term, here are just a few.....

ANIMALS IN ANCIENT EGYPT

The Cat in Ancient Egypt

Cats were considered sacred animals in ancient Egypt. They were often kept in homes and were believed to have magical powers. The goddess Bastet was often depicted as a cat. Cats were also used for hunting and as companions.

Scarab Beetle

Scarab beetles were considered sacred in ancient Egypt. They were often used as amulets and were believed to have magical powers. The scarab beetle was also used as a symbol of rebirth and resurrection.

Gods and Goddesses of Ancient Egypt

The ancient Egyptians believed in many gods and goddesses. Some of the most important ones were Ra, Isis, Osiris, and Anubis. Each god and goddess had their own unique powers and symbols.

RA

RA was the sun god in ancient Egypt. He was often depicted as a man with a sun disk on his head. He was believed to travel across the sky in a solar barque, bringing light and life to the world.

Map of Egypt

This map shows the location of the pyramids and the Great Sphinx in ancient Egypt. The pyramids were built as tombs for pharaohs and were considered one of the wonders of the world.

Crocodiles

Crocodiles were considered sacred in ancient Egypt. They were often kept in the Nile river and were believed to have magical powers. The crocodile was also used as a symbol of strength and power.

Great Sphinx

The Great Sphinx is a massive limestone statue with a human face and a lion's body. It is located on the Giza pyramid complex in Egypt. It is believed to have been built by the pharaoh Khafre.

Pyramids

The pyramids were built as tombs for pharaohs and were considered one of the wonders of the world. They were built using large stones and were often decorated with hieroglyphs.

Animals in Ancient Egypt

Animals were considered sacred in ancient Egypt. They were often kept in homes and were believed to have magical powers. The cat, scarab beetle, and crocodile were some of the most important animals.

REVIE B

Pyramids

The pyramids were built as tombs for pharaohs and were considered one of the wonders of the world. They were built using large stones and were often decorated with hieroglyphs.

Crocodiles

Crocodiles were considered sacred in ancient Egypt. They were often kept in the Nile river and were believed to have magical powers. The crocodile was also used as a symbol of strength and power.

