

ANCIENT EGYPTIANS

Everything you need to know about the Egyptians!!

A Project Homework- by James Hunt

WHO ARE THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS?

The Ancient Egyptians are interesting, confusing, and of course, horrible
Find out how to make a mummy, have an interview with my dad, and learn about the pyramids and Cleopatra

ABOUT THE PYRAMIDS

HOW MANY PYRAMIDS ARE LEFT?

There are an estimated 138 surviving pyramids

WHO BUILT THE PYRAMIDS?

Pharaohs SLAVES used to build the pyramids

Fun Fact:

It took 20,000 slaves to build the pyramids in 20 years

WHY WERE THE PYRAMIDS BUILT?

The pyramids were built to hide the tomb of the pharaoh

The first pyramid was built by pharaoh Djoser and architect Imhotep (2500 B.C)

CLEOPATRA

WHO WAS CLEOPATRA?

Pharaoh and real queen of the Nile River

And had 2 husbands, and they were her BROTHERS

She never married Julius Caesar

She was the last Pharaoh of Egypt

When was she alive?

being built!!!!

THE FOOD

WHAT DID THEY EAT?

The rich ate lots and lots of meat

The poor ate fish and pigs

The bread was so gritty it wore their teeth away

HOW DID THEY COOK IT?

Egyptian food was cooked in simple clay pots, using wooden tools and stored in jars. Fish and meat had to be especially prepared for storage.

HOW TO MAKE A MUMMY

Warning: If you have high gag reflex, cup your ears and close your eyes><

--

Get a dead body , oils ,knifes ,bandages , 4 canopic jars , a needle and thread, a hook and stuffing

1.Get your knife and cut open the left side of the body, take out the organs and put one in each canopic jar

2. Stich up the wound

HOW TO MAKE A MUMMY

3. Get your hook and stick it up the pharaoh's nose and take the brain out bit by bit

4. Stuff the body to keep the body in shape.
